About Rylee's Run 5k:

"Rylee's Run 5k" commemorates the life of Rylee Rae Vinson (pictured above), who was born August 16, 2007 at 32 weeks and passed away eight days later due to complications of premature birth. Rylee's parents, Jason and Jessica Vinson, pillars of the Greater Memphis Soccer Association, established the RIBS soccer tournament in 2009 to raise money for the March of Dimes.

To further honor Rylee's memory and to repay the kindness and invaluable help extended to the Vinson family by the March of Dimes, Rylee's Run 5k, held the Friday before the RIBS tournament, will serve to give back to the March of Dimes in hope that they will continue to help families in situations similar to Rylee's and that they may find additional ways to prevent prematurity so that "one day, all babies will be born healthy."
